Messrs. S. & C. & H. Chapman,

Gentlemen:

I was informed that you could give me information about the value of old coins. If you have any form of printed circulars, will you kindly send me some?

There was a sale of old coins some time ago, and a party who is a banker purchased some. I think his first name is George. If you could give me his full name, it would do me a great favor.

Yours respectfully,
(Miss) J. M. Simmons.
